THE LOG

— 1973 —

We, The Class of 1973 dedicate this LOG to the QUEST-- The Quest that each of us makes for meaning and purpose in Life.

If a man does not keep pace with his companions, perhaps it is because he hears a different drummer.
Let him step to the music which he hears, however measured or far away.

Henry David Thoreau

The Impossible Dream

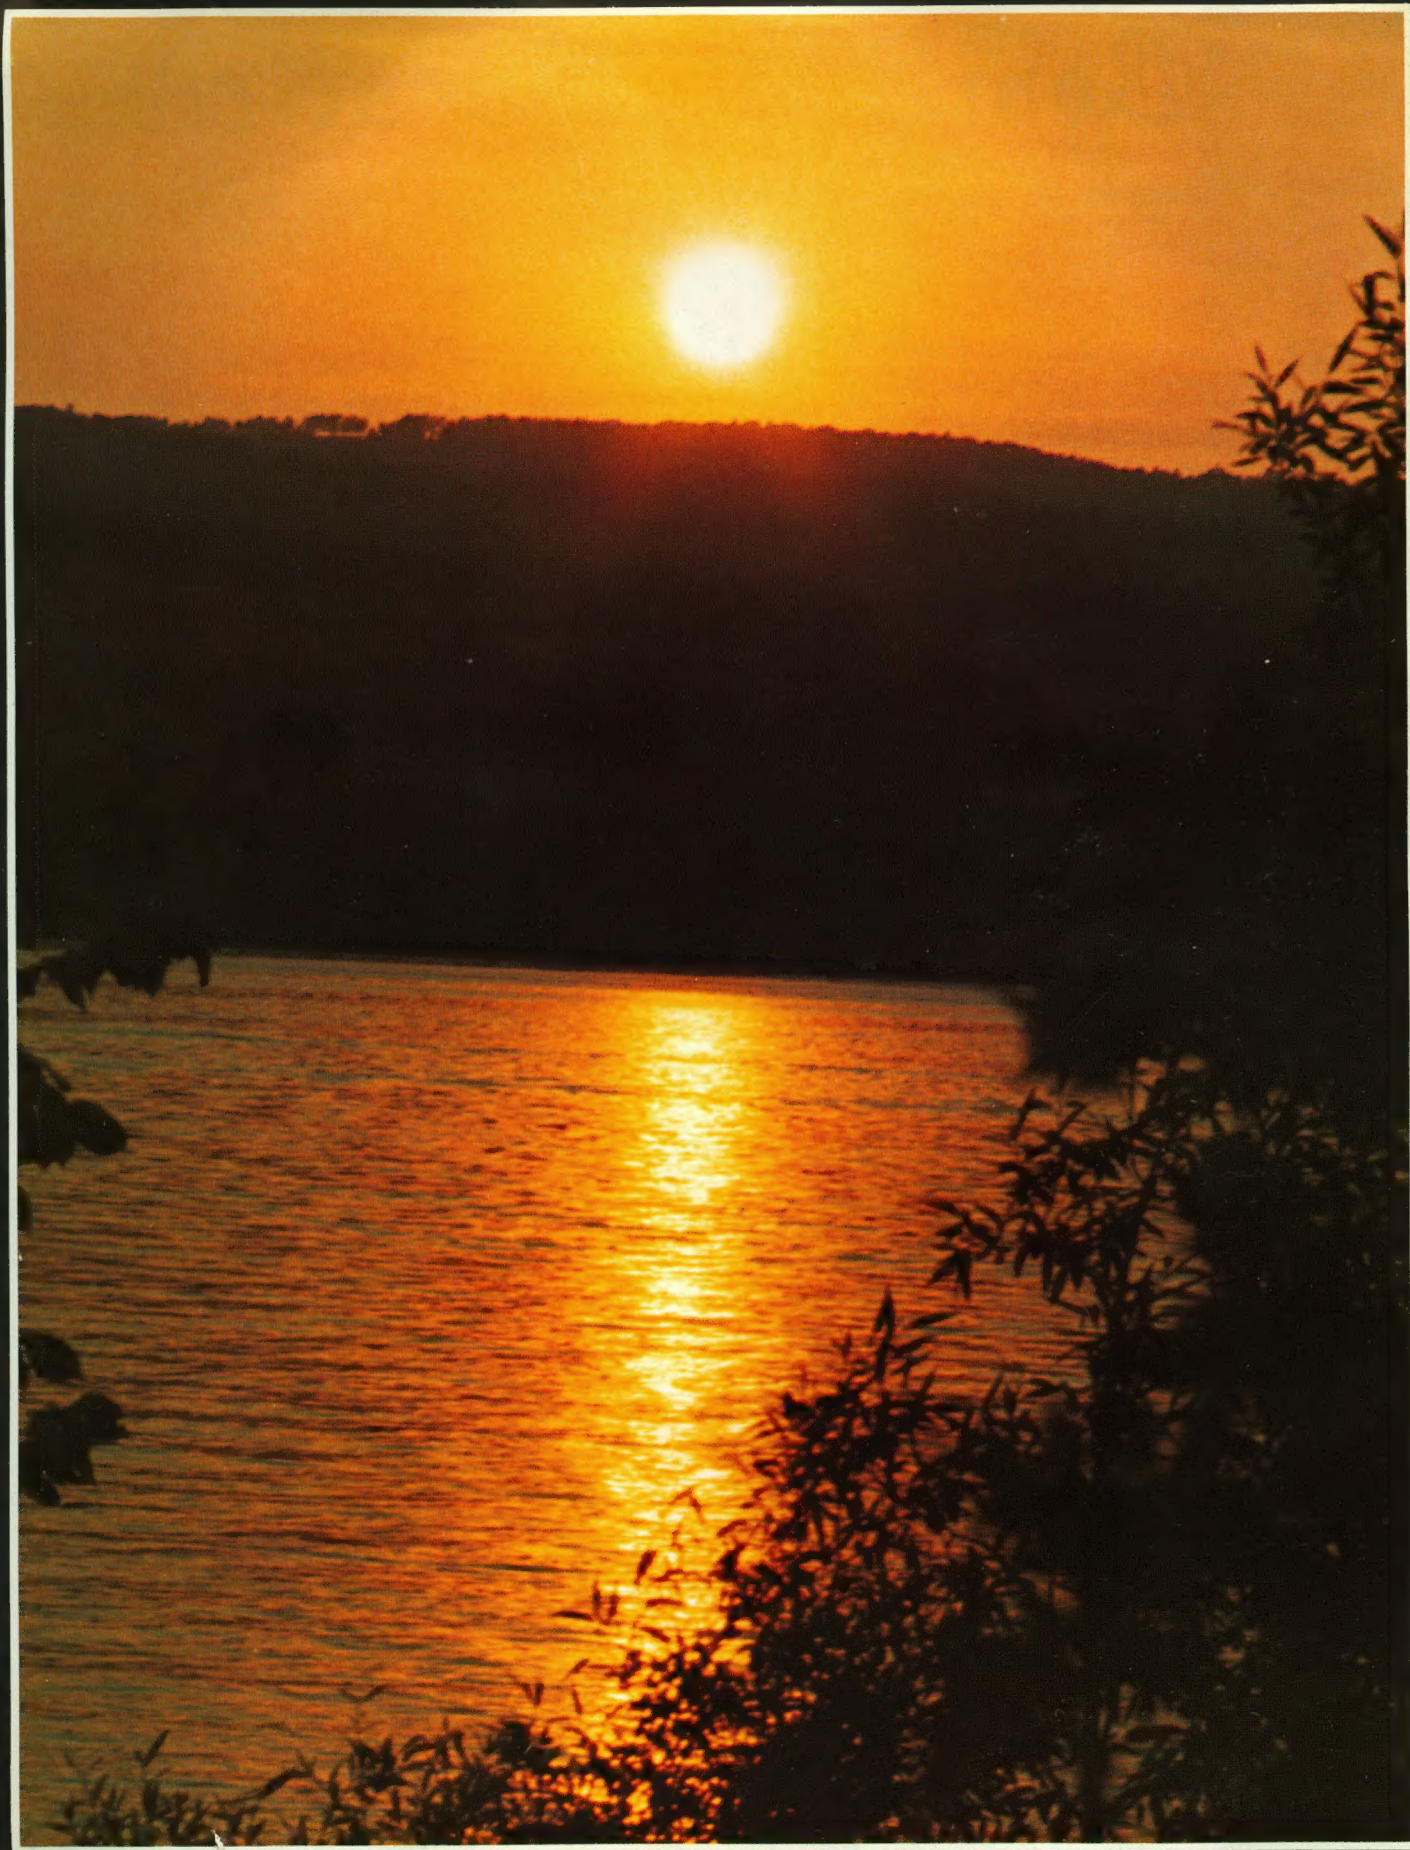

To Dream The Impossible Dream,
To fight the unbeatable foe,
To bear with unbearable sorrow,
To run where the brave dare not go.

To right the unrightable wrong,
To love pure and chaste from afar,
To try when your arms are too weary,
To reach the unreachable star.

This is my Quest, to follow that star,
No matter how hopeless, no matter how far;
To fight for the right, without question or pause,
To be ready to march into hell, for a heavenly cause!

And I know if I'll only be true,
To this glorious quest,
That my heart will lie peaceful and calm,
When I'm laid to my rest.

And the world will be better for this,
That one man, scorned and covered with scars,
Still strove with his last ounce of courage,
To reach the unreachable star.

Seniors

To you Mr. Robert Melo, who has been so much a part of our lives for the past 4 years, as a teacher, coach, advisor and most of all a friend. To show our gratitude, We The Class of 1973 dedicate our senior section to you... With many THANKS.

The Climb

There is a mountain.
I've scaled its rugged slopes, and up its sides
I've pulled my love and pushed my dreams.

There in the wide valleys below
I see in younger faces my own anticipation set freshly afire by the mountain's constant inspiration.

Now my mountain stands in shadows, obscuring miles of mastered mysteries, leaving new bounds yet untouched to discover.

I'm leaving my worn mountain.
Eventual tomorrows lie untended, waiting to become whatever I shall make them.

Father and Son

It's not time to make a change, just relax take it easy, you're still young that's your fault there's so much you have to know. Find a girl settle down, If you want you can marry, look at me, I am old but I'm happy.

I was once like you are now, and I know that it's not easy to be calm when you've found something going on, but take your time, think a lot, why think of everything you've got, For you will still be here tomorrow but your dreams may not.

How can I explain, 'cause when I do he turns away again, It's always been the same old story. From the moment I could talk I was ordered to listen, now there's a way and I know and I have to go. Away, I know I have to go.

It's not time to make a change, just sit down take it slowly, you're still young that's you're fault, there's so much you have to go through. Find a girl settle down if you want you can marry, look at me I am old but I'm happy	Away away away, I know I have to make this decision alone-no
All the times that I've cried keeping all the things I knew inside it's hard, but it's harder to ignore it. If they were right I'd agree but it's them they know not me now there's a way, and I know that I have to go away, I know I have to go.	Stay stay stay why must you go and make this decision alone?

I have no need of distorted comments and misleading answers
I have no use for awkward acts of sentimentality and the emotional pacifiers with which you continually blanket a near-by lover
I refuse to subscribe to your weekly publications of "heart-touching trivia" and "romance revival" I cannot accept your offerings of incompetent loving and laws of random relationships
I can no longer function in an atmosphere of hypocritical saviors
who claim they are innocent and ignorant
of my suffering

Floating down the river of adolescence your fingers blindly glide through the smiling water do not be pulled out with the tide your instincts, lead the way

But now you are

Drowning into the ocean of stereotypes your hand saw only wetness it was BLUE and just like the rest

Not you.
